Falls Church Boy Scout Troop 349 Deliver Food to City's Homeless Shelter

Falls Church, Virginia December 17th, 2011 — 17 Scouts from Troop 349 delivered some much needed holiday cheer to the cities homeless. Members of the troop planned, cooked, and delivered a holiday meal to the shelter on Gordon's Road by the property yard. Food and dessert was made for all of the shelters occupants as well as the staff.

“Many thanks to Melissa Dana, Julie Griffin, the Rousseys, Millie Sjoberg and the families and Scouts who prepared and delivered the meals. You really brought some joy to some homeless people last night that they otherwise would not have. In this way, you all are exhibiting the very best in Scouting” Stated Michael Keays Scoutmaster for the Troop.
